

THE DAILY JOURNAL

the best daily paper published on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, east of Sacramento, having a general circulation throughout the State, it is especially valuable as an advertising medium.

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL have a combined circulation larger than that of any interior journal of Nevada, excepting those the Comstock.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

J. R. Keene is en route for San Francisco.

Governor McCreery, of Kentucky, has sent the State militia to Breathitt county.

Henry Wells, founder of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, died in Glasgow, Scotland, Tuesday night.

There was a heavy gale yesterday all along the Atlantic coast and was very severe at Boston. Some damage to shipping is reported.

Following is the vote of Boston for Mayor: Prince, Dem., 19,646; Cadman, Rep., 18,006; King, Working-men's candidate, 431.

No. 8,175 in the Louisiana State Lottery Tuesday drew a prize of $100,000; No. 75,203 drew $50,000, and No. 92,784 drew $20,000.

The heavy rain storm the two last days have caused much damage in New England. In Philadelphia the loss is serious by the overflow of wharves and the flooding of cellars.

George Draper, colored, of Wilmington, Delaware, convicted of murder in the second degree, was sentenced on Monday to a fine of $10,000, to stand one hour in the pillory, receive sixty lashes and be imprisoned for life.

Matthews' committee met Tuesday morning and discussed the question of sending to Nevada for Anderson as a witness. No decision was reached. It was decided, however, to send to the House Committee for a copy of the testimony given by Anderson.

On Sunday, down near Summer-ville, Texas, masked men surrounded the house of John Stull and threw torpedoes inside. The inmates rushing out, Rufus Smith and John Stull were shot and killed, and Smith's wife and baby wounded. The assassins are unknown.

John O'Connor, ex-member of the Ohio Legislature, who was convicted in the United States Court of forging certain papers to procure an invalid pension, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the Montgomery county jail, and to pay costs of prosecution.

An effort is being made to impeach Judge Henry W. Blodgett, of the U. S. Court at Chicago, for alleged high crimes and misdemeanors. A counter influence is being brought to bear by the friends of the gentleman, who declare that his impeachment would be a public calamity.

The profits of the Western Union Telegraph Company for the quarter ending December 1, actual and estimated, are $1,014,795, and a dividend 1 1/2 per cent. is declared from the net earnings, payable January 15.

The Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company declared a dividend yesterday of three quarters of one per cent.

The New York Times, in a leader, deprecates the introduction of the bill by Representative Page to enforce the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments of the Constitution. It says they are calculated to increase existing irritation without accomplishing any good. It advises deferring party action until the investigation called for by Blaine's resolution has been made and the case against the South fully made out.

Gen. Grant expects to arrive in San Francisco about May, 1879, and, after a short stay on the Pacific Coast, during which he will visit Oregon, Grant will begin his eastward journey by rail. He will visit the banana mining region, and will pass some days in Colorado. He hopes to reach his home at Long Branch about the latter end of June. Letters and dispatches received from the East say the deepest interest is felt in General Grant's coming. Mrs. Grant will accompany her husband throughout the journey.

There is authority for the statement that Ohio Republicans believe their strongest man for the next gubernatorial canvass is Charles Foster, and for next Presidential candidate John Sherman.

EDITORIAL JOTS.

The consolidation of the Union and Central Pacific Railroads under one management seems to be a fact. Nevada comes under the head of way freight and is fleeced yearly of enormous amounts. Then if they get control of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. the entire coast will be within their greedy grasp. Won't we suffer then, with no hope of redress until the average Congressman becomes honest. Time would be saved by the immediate confiscation of this State.

The Truckee difficulty with the Chinese seems to be settled and all is peaceful and quiet in that mountain town. The Chinese have accepted the inevitable and moved to their new quarters, where the busy hammer and saw is shaping shanties for them to live in. John stands a deal of persecution before he will return to the land of his birth—the Empire of the Orient.

Some people believe the honor conferred upon Wade Hampton by electing him U. S. Senator was simply a compliment to a dying man, believing that the amputation and exhaustion would kill him in a short time. The unanimity of the vote would give this belief color.

The philanthropic people of Bodie are thinking of establishing a hospital in that place for the unfortunate who go there in pursuit of work and become sick. A worthy object.

GRANT COUNTY, KY., has officers who are too cowardly or too corrupt to enforce the laws; therefore Frank Turner, although he had killed four men, was still at liberty. Nobody dared to quarrel with him, and, in order to get an antagonist, he sought out Peter Judd, who had recently fought with the desperado's brother. Turner called Judd out of the house and demanded an apology. Judd instantly promised to apologize. Turner was disappointed by this easy victory, and commanded Judd to apologize on his knees, hoping that he would, by refusing, give a pretext for bloodshed. Judd submissively got down on his knees. Then Turner stabbed him to death. The officers did not arrest the murderer even then, but a mob banged him.

A SAN FRANCISCO dispatch says: C. N. West, a canvasser for the Rural Press, recently eloped with the whole family of John Rupe, a farmer of San Juan South, consisting of his wife, two boys aged eight and ten respectively, a girl of four and a pair of twins. He also included in his haul a lot of bed-clothing and $75 belonging to Rupe. West came here with his menagerie and on complaint of Rupe who wants his bed-clothes and money, the wholesale eloper was arrested to-day and locked up.

A GENTLEMAN who visited the Sierra Nevada Tuesday says that the incline is down 57 feet below the 2200, and that good ore was found on the footwall all the way down, and on present developments alone he thinks the stock is worth twice what it is selling for. There is a large quantity of ore now lying on the surface that was hoisted out of the mine sometime ago, while sinking the incline, that will mill at least $100 per ton.

Mrs. Torp is still getting along favorably. She was Tuesday morning removed to the house of Gottli. Haist and is being cared for by her friends and the Daughters of Rebekah. The excitement of her removal and of the funeral of Mr. Torp operated disadvantageously upon her and in the afternoon she was taken with vomiting. For awhile her friends were very anxious about her, but her physicians now pronounce her in a fair way to recover.

A Tribune Washington special says: Senator Cameron's report on the Corbin Butler election will generally be supported by Republicans. It concludes that no representations from Laurens and Edgefield counties were legally elected, and that consequently the election of M. C. Butler was illegal and that the election of Corbin was valid in all respects.

The South Carolina Legislature elected Governor Hampton to the United States Senate Tuesday. The House with two exceptions voted for Hampton. The exceptions were Miller and Simmons, colored members from Beaufort, who voted for Mackey.

The net receipts of the Fair given by the ladies of St. Mary's Church, in Miners' Union Hall, Gold Hill, last week, were $1,359 60.

WHOSE BUSINESS IS IT?

Under the above heading the Virginia Enterprise strikes out from the shoulder after the following fashion:

As has already been announced, a proposition is now pending before the Georgia Legislature to grant to ex-Confederates, who have been disabled by wounds or loss of limbs, exemption from taxation under State and county levies. Strange as it may seem, this proposition is receiving the approval of many of the leading Democratic journals of the North. The Pittsburg Gazette (Democratic) says there is nothing wrong in the proposed exemption, since "it is admitted at the Department of Justice that a State has a right to pension its own citizens, where such an act does not come in conflict with the United States laws." The St. Louis Republican (Democratic) warmly espouses the proposition and gives it countenance in this manner:

Whose business is it, pray, if the people of Georgia, through their Legislature, choose to relieve disabled ex-Confederate soldiers of certain taxes? Are not those taxes the property of the people of Georgia? Cannot they do what they please with them? If the Massachusetts Legislature should vote an annual pension of $500 to every "old, original Abolitionist" in the State, would Georgia have any right to complain? As to the proposed exemption from taxation being "an indication that the spirit of rebellion still lurks in the Southern heart," the suggestion is quite worthy of the source from which it emanates.

"Whose business is it?" Why it is the business of every loyal man in the State of Georgia, who is guaranteed by the Federal Constitution against the payment of taxes to reward the men who attempt to destroy the Government. The 14th article of the Constitution provides that "neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations or claims shall be held illegal and void." The proposed legislation in Georgia is in direct conflict with the spirit and letter of this provision. If the exemption be made, it must be done in response to an "obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States," and an exemption from taxation is equivalent to a pension, since an exemption of one class of property from taxation necessarily places a heavier burden upon all other classes. The proposal is simply to pension ex-Confederate soldiers who were named in the rebellion. It is proposed to compel those who refused to take up arms against the Government to pay a perpetual yearly reward to destroy it. The amended Constitution says this shall not be done; and the beginning of such legislation, were it not interdicted would know no end.

RUMOR ABOUT SHARON.

We publish the following from the Carson Tribune. We hope the rumor may prove to be true, but we don't believe Sharon will resign:

It is reported by responsible persons from below that Senator W. Sharon contemplates resigning his position and that he is waiting the convening of the Legislature in order to do so. We believe that Mr. Sharon would have resigned his seat over a year ago had he not been too good a Republican to leave the appointment of his successor in the hands of a Democratic Governor. Should the report prove correct, and such a man as Judge Mesick, Jonas Seely, Judge Whitman or Lewis receive the appointment, it will be a matter of great gratulation to the people of Nevada, for the reason that the interests of our young and growing State need close attention. There are matters of great importance to Nevada to be considered in the United States Senate, the freight and fare question being the paramount one it is absolutely necessary that the Senators should be in their seats and lend their votes and influence towards compelling the C. P. R. R. to do Nevada justice. So far nothing has been done in Congress towards the protection of Nevada merchants from the gross imposition of that gigantic monopoly.

The Virginia Chronicle of the 11th contains this remarkable ad:

WANTED.—A suitable person to serve as County Commissioner for the term of two years from date. The applicant must be a Democrat, and be in all other respects of good moral character. No man who would walk off with a hot stove need apply. Inquire for Governor Bradley, at the law office of C. H. Binknap. VIRGINIA, Dec. 11, 1878. d11 tf

It is stated that the friends of Senator Thurman will insist on his being the next candidate for Governor of Ohio, believing him the only man to beat the Republicans, and if successful he will be able to secure the nomination for the Presidency.

J. C. BLACKBURN has been formally announced as a candidate for Speaker of the next House, and the Louisville Courier-Journal says that he "will enter the contest backed by a general support from all the States."

JUDGE GOODWIN, of the Enterprise, is expected to return from his visit to Oregon in a day or two.

The Chronicle figures to its own satisfaction how the Kearneyites can elect their Congressman in San Francisco, dictate the other Congressional elections in the State and possibly elect their Governor in September next.

The commercial treaty with Japan, soon to be communicated to the Senate by the President for ratification, contemplates important additions to the present treaty, having in view an increase and development of the commerce of both countries.

It appears that the "Working-men's" candidates elected the other day at Los Angeles, are mostly popular capitalists.

The November bullion product of the Northern Belle mine was $48,932.

WANTED.—Before the 1st of January, $25,000! We offer as an equivalent $50,000 worth of dry goods, fancy goods and clothing. Startling as the above announcement is, nevertheless it is true. Necessity knows no law, nor rule of business. We take this unusual method with the full knowledge of the sacrifice we have to suffer; but we are compelled to raise the above amount of money within 30 days, and offer all the inducements in our power to succeed. We will sell black French silks (genuine Bonnets), from $1 to $3. Colored satins, black cashmeres, mourning goods, crape cloth, shawls, dress goods, fancy and domestic goods, cloaks for ladies and children, carpets and wall paper, of all description, at such rates that they are within the reach of all, and everybody will be able to make handsome presents for the holidays, with small investments. We also call especial attention to our immense stock of clothing, which we intend to close out entirely, as we propose to enlarge our dry goods business. We reduced this stock so exceedingly low that it would be folly for anybody wanting to buy men's or boys' clothing, to go in any other house. Give us a call, examine and be convinced. * BARNETT BROS.

WHO WANTS BARGAINS?—The dissolution sale of Barnett Bros. offers extra inducements just now, if you have the coin and need Dry Goods, Clothing, etc., of any kind. They sell without regard to cost, as a glance at their price list in another part of this paper shows. Let all who want bargains call on them as they mean just what they say. All indebted to them are desired to come up and settle immediately. *

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES.—Lubin's extracts for 7 bits, $1 patent medicines for 7 bits, 75 cents patent medicines for 5 bits, Florida water for 4 bits. All other patent medicines and toilet preparations cheaper than can be bought elsewhere. Prescriptions carefully compounded at greatly reduced rates at Osburn & Shoemaker's drug store. *

CARL VON NETZER, late professor of Mt. St. Mary's Academy in Reno, is prepared to receive pupils in Latin, German, French, Surveying, Assaying, Guitar, Singing, Drawing and Penning. Inquire at his residence in Muran's new building, Centre St., near the depot. *

The National gold medal was awarded to Bradley and Rulofson for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna medal for the best in the world. 429 Montgomery St., San Francisco. *

A LIE.—A certain dealer asserts that he has no shelf goods in his store. Any one acquainted with him or his predecessors knows this to be false. He has goods seven years old in his store. M. NATHAN. *

FOR SALE.—A horse and buggy, terms cash. A bargain. To be seen at Hymers & Chism's stables. *

The simplest, best and most durable machines—the New American—for sale for $30, at S. N. Davidson's. Jeweler. *
